Sindh Agriculture University Tandojam has announced the skill based training programs for Rural Youth, having age group 18 to 35 years with minimum education 5th to 8th class.

The rural women specially youth will be trained through practical demonstration in Kitchen Gardening. All the interested candidates from Civil Society, NGOs Worker, CBOs Worker, VOs Worker and youth from Agrarian-Rural Based Community especially rural women may also apply.

After completion of the training the successful candidates will be awarded certificate and will work as a Community Resource Persons in their community and extend their knowledge through training program to the community people for their better livelihood.

The training will be imparted in each district where the participants of the training will be empowered regarding kitchen gardening practices at their home district.

NOTE: Venue will be decided after receiving the nomination from perspective district of the province. Priority will be given on first come first serve basis.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>S#</th>
<th>Name of Trade</th>
<th>Duration of Training</th>
<th>Location of Training</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>01</td>
<td>Kitchen Gardening</td>
<td>07 Days</td>
<td>SAU Tandojam</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All the candidates are requested to submit their Application Form on standard format upto 15 January 2015 on the following address. The Application Form can be downloaded from the website: www.sau.edu.pk. The short listed candidates will be called for written test and interview.

For further information please contact the undersigned.

Address for Correspondence

Muhammad Ismail Kumbhar
Director / Training Coordinator
University Advancement and Financial Assistant Sindh Agriculture University, Tandojam
e-mail: mikmbhar2000@yahoo.com
cell: 0301-3569244